DR. JONAS SALK AND
NATIONAL FOUNDATION MARCH OF DIMESApril 8, 1965
[S. Con. Res. 30]

Whereas April 12, 1965, is the tenth anniversary of one of the most significant medical achievements of our time, Doctor Jonas Salk's development of a successful vaccine against poliomyelitis; and Whereas, in the ten years since the introduction of the Salk vaccine, there has been a 99 per centum reduction in the number of cases of polio in the United States; and

Whereas this dread disease which once attacked as many as fifty-seven thousand Americans in a single year and made the summer months a time of fear and apprehension for parents across the Nation has now been eliminated as a public health problem; and

Whereas this great medical victory was won through a unique partnership between the American people and medical scientists like Doctor Salk, under the auspices of the National Foundation March of Dimes, and with the outstanding cooperation of the United States Public Health Service; and

Whereas a leading example of how this partnership is continuing and expanding is the Salk Institute for Biological Studies in La Jolla, California; and

Whereas this institute was conceived as a research center where scientists of international reputation could come and map out the high strategy of man's fight for health; and

Whereas Doctor Salk and his colleagues from all over the world are now at work on projects aimed at discovering the basic concepts of life itself; and

Whereas from this research can flow the specific methods to control disease and to promote the health and better understanding of man and his full potential: Now be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That Doctor Jonas Salk and the National Foundation March of Dimes be congratulated on this tenth anniversary of the announcement of the world's first effective vaccine against polio, that the Nation express its gratitude to Doctor Salk and to his colleagues concerned with this historic discovery and to the Foundation and that our confidence be expressed that the work of the National Foundation March of Dimes—specifically its fight against birth defects—and of the Salk Institute for Biological Studies will bring about the blessings of better health for our society and all its citizens.

Agreed to April 8, 1965.

Congratulations and expression of gratitude.
